

Los Robles East: White Horse Canyon, Los Robles and Brookview Trails Loop

Highlights

- 95% wide dirt roads
- Some good views of the Los Robles trail system, Thousand Oaks, lakes, and mountains
- White Horse Canyon Trail may be too steep for mountain bikers to enjoy climbing
- White Horse Canyon Trail is a of the segments of the 2023 Conejo Open Space Challenge (<https://cosf.org/challenge>; colored green on the map)

Description

This moderate route includes diverse terrain including trails along the ridgeline, in the canyons, and along the hillsides. Being some distance from popular trailheads that have lots of parking, these trails are less used than other parts of the Los Robles Trail system.

There is no parking at the trailhead on Potrero Road. The closest is in the nearby neighborhood on Margate Place. It's about 0.2 miles from parking to the trailhead.

Key Statistics

Distance: 5.8 miles, including the segment along Potrero Road from parking to the trailhead

Cumulative Climbing and Descent: About 1000'

Popularity: These trails are less popular but you are still likely to see other people on this route.

Parking: Free on Margate Place

Tread Surface: Mostly Edison and fire roads. Brookview trail is quite rocky with an uneven tread. So is Los Robles South.

Hazards: The short section of White Horse Canyon Trail that is not included in this route is very steep.

Facilities: None

Connections: To other trails in the Los Robles Trail system by way of the Los Robles Trail, and two singletrack trails that lead down and south to Bridgegate Street. Note that Sherwood Vista Trail leads to a gated community from which there is no exit to public streets.

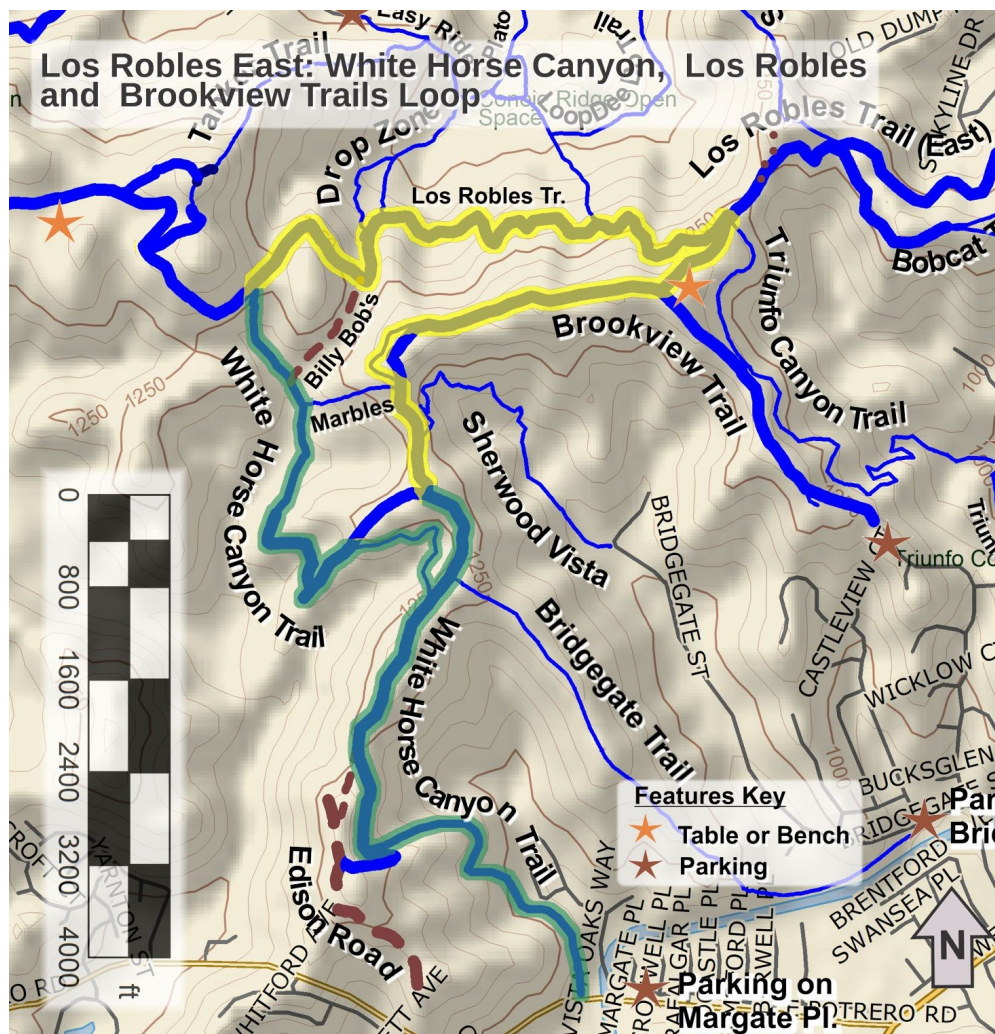

Directions: Park near the corner of Margate Place and Cromwell Pl in Westlake. From the 101 Freeway in Thousand Oaks, exit at Westlake Blvd (exit 40) and drive south 1.7 miles to Potrero Road. Turn right and continue 0.3 miles. Turn right onto Trafalgar Place, then immediately turn left onto Margate Place. Drive 1 block to Cromwell Place and park at the side of the road.
