

Los Robles East - Brookview Loop

Highlights

- Brookview Trail runs mostly along a ridgeline so you get great views to the south over Lake Sherwood and north over Thousand Oaks.
- Brookview and White Horse Canyon Trails are quite remote and rugged, so they are great for getting away from the crowds.
- Brookview Trail is a segment of the 2026 Conejo Open Space Challenge (<https://cosf.org/challenge>; colored pink on the map below).

Description

The Brookview Trail is quite remote and rugged and is the first leg of this moderate 4.5-mile lollipop loop. You'll likely have the amazing views in all directions to yourself and your companions. When the trail turns south and downhill, you'll want to make sure to take the side trail on the right (when traveling clockwise around the loop) to avoid the steep, rocky and loose section known affectionately by some mountain bikers as "The Descent of Death." This bypass trail was built in the 2014 COSCA Annual Fall Trail Work Day by dozens of volunteers.

Key Statistics

Distance: 4.5 miles.

Cumulative Climbing and Descent: About 950'.

Parking: Free at the side of the road at the top (north-west end) of Brookview Avenue.

Popularity: Most of this route is quite remote so you probably won't see other people on much of it. Los Robles Trail East (Edison Road) is much more popular.

Tread Surface: Hard packed trails of various widths. Some sections have minor ruts and/or possibly slippery loose sand on top. Long stretches are quite rough.

Hazards: There are some long stretches of very uneven surfaces. The north end of White Horse Canyon Trail, where it meets Los Robles Trail east, is steep and very rocky for about 500'.

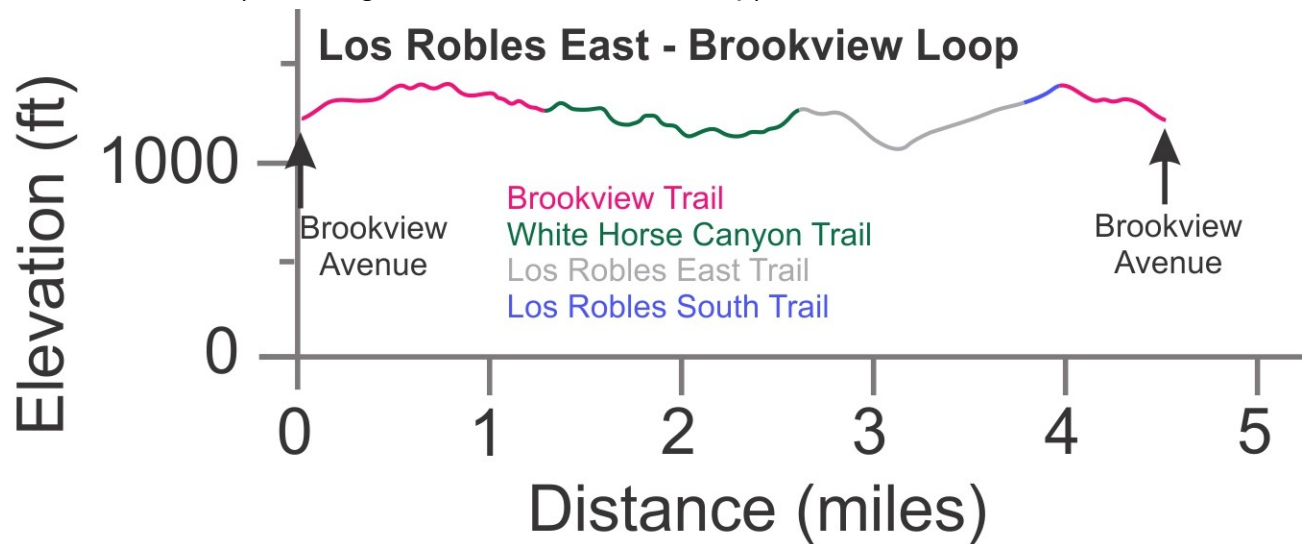

Facilities: There is a picnic table up a very short hill where Brookview and Los Robles South Trails meet.

Connections: To many other trails in the Los Robles East area.

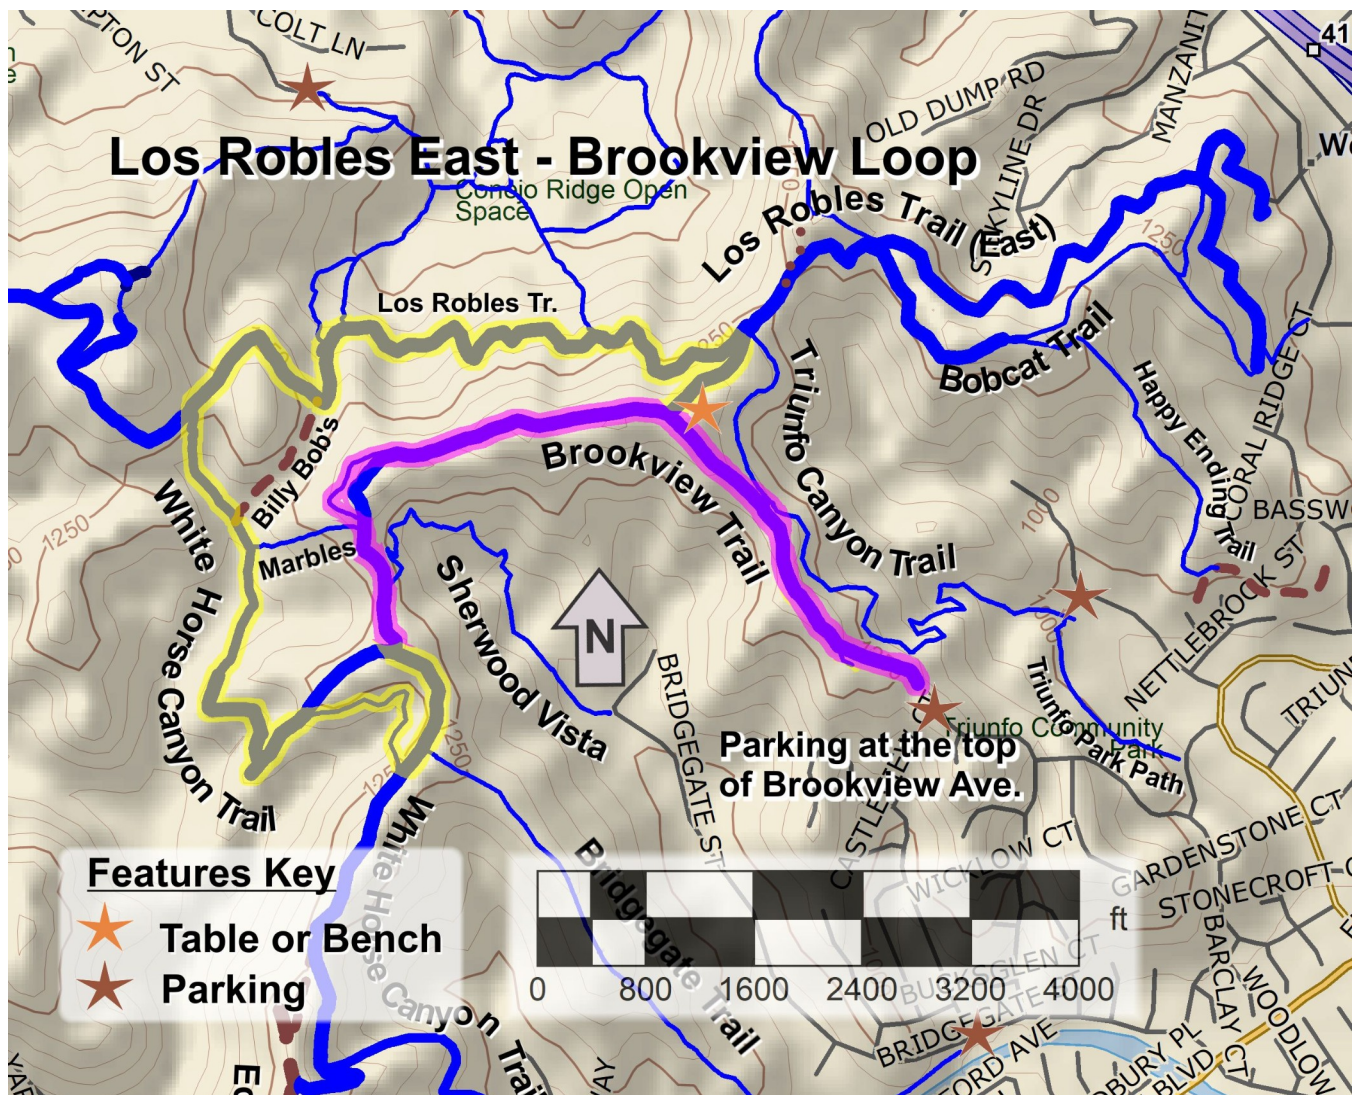

Directions: From the 101 Freeway in Thousand Oaks, turn south on Westlake Blvd. Drive for 1.2 miles and turn right on Bridgegate St. Drive for 0.3 miles before turning right onto Brookview Ave. The trailhead is 0.6 miles ahead at the end of the road.

Map: <https://bit.ly/4aeF1nQ>

Elevation Profile (Traveling clockwise around the loop)

Route Map (2026 Conejo Open Space Challenge trail is highlighted in pink)

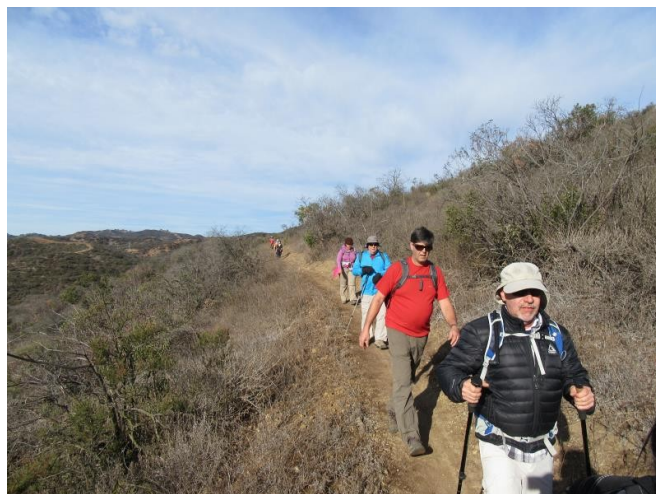

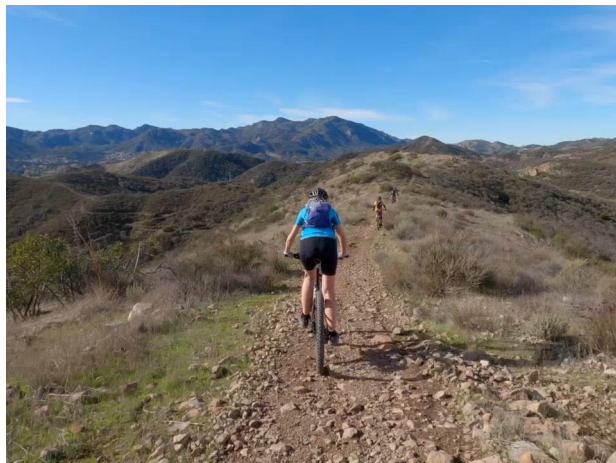

Map courtesy of <https://www.venturacountytrails.org>

Updated November 25, 2025

Photos

Brookview Trail

White Horse Canyon Trail

Los Robles East

Los Robles South

