Rosewood Trail to Angel Vista

Highlights

- Easy 3-mile round-trip hike
- Great views at Angel Vista – from the Channel Islands to Topatopa Bluff to the Santa Suzana Mountains to Mount Baldy
- Really fun ride down for mountain bikers

Description

This is an easy hike from Regal Oak Ct. to Angel Vista with a great view at the top. The climb is gentle and fairly constant with a couple of spots that are slightly steeper. 1.4 miles from the start you will reach a fork. When climbing, to the left is a short connector to the Los Robles (West) Trail, and straight ahead will get you to the bench and then the picnic table at Angel Vista. If you would like a slightly longer hike, you can head north along the trail from the start to Lynn Rd. This will add about 0.6 miles to go out and back.

For experienced mountain bikers, this is a popular and very fun descent, but is somewhat rough because of the rockiness. It's not for beginners because it's a bit of a steep climb. Because it's so short, this trail is often combined with the Los Robles Trail to which it connects at the top, most often east to Space Mountain and beyond, but also west over the Dragonback Hills to Potrero Rd.
